Response Pattern Predictions

- Measure to measure response style
- Looking if people tend to respond to surveys in a certain way.
  - i.e. respond at a more positive, negative, avoid extremes
- The scale directly asks people how they will respond to surveys: No tricking participants.

I tend to respond positively to survey items

I tend to respond negatively to survey items

I tend to respond neutral responses

I tend to have high social desirability when responding to survey items